Bandera, TX

Two Bandera High School sophomores were selected for the All Region Mixed Choir on Saturday, October 1st at Stevens High School in San Antonio. Destrly Tosh placed 15th chair for Bass 1, and Claire Johanson placed 7th for Soprano 1. Johanson placed in the top 10 of her vocal section and has qualified to advance to the Pre-Area Mixed Choir competition with the chance to advance to the All State Choir. Both of Tosh and Johanson will participate in a formal concert on Saturday, November 12th at Brandeis High School at 4:30pm singing in a 120 voice choir with students from other 3A, 4A, and 5A schools in our region. The concert will be free and open to the public. "Our Bandera choir students who participated put forth a great effort and represented our high school very well," said Director Catherine Holmes. Other students participating in the All Region Mixed Choir competition were: Javier Rodriguez, Jordan Tomkins, Kassie Villarreal; Ricardo Espinosa, Marissa Godbey, Cheyanne Van Vleet, Jamie Gallia, April Rodriguez, Emily Sullivan Darby Lenihan, and Zeanna Rivera.
