V. Complaints

A. How to Hear Level III Employee Grievances or Complaints

 - 2) This procedure and Policy DGBA do not apply to the termination or nonrenewal of a contract employee. The board should consult the Policy DF Series and the district's lawyer for these situations.
 - 3) The proper forum for hearing a level III grievance is an agenda item at a properly posted meeting. Policy DGBA (LEGAL) states that if an employee's complaint involves another district employee, the meeting will be closed to the public unless the employee who is the subject of the complaint requests an open meeting in accordance with the Texas Open Meetings Act. If the complaint does not involve another district employee, the complaint will be closed to the public unless the employee bringing the complaint requests an open meeting in accordance with the Texas Open Meetings Act:
 - a) The board president will guide the process of the grievance presentation.
 - b) The board will listen to the presentation of the grievance, the administration's response to the presentation, and any rebuttal to the administration's response.
 - c) Following the rebuttal, the presiding officer will allow board members to ask questions of any party to clarify facts presented at the meeting.
 - d) During the proceedings, the board will act professionally and in a business-like manner.

 - f) The president will ensure that the presentation is confined to the issues brought up at lower levels and not permit new or expanded grievances to enter the proceeding.
- 2) Following the process in Step 3, the board should exercise one of the options listed in Policy DGBA (LOCAL).

- a) Deny the grievance—uphold the lower-decision. This option implies that the board has heard and considered the grievance but considers the grievance unfounded and takes formal action to indicate its choice to deny.
 - b) Grant the grievance—reverse the lower-level decision.
 - c) Grant in part and deny in part—modify specific parts of the lower-level decision.
 - d) Take no action—uphold the lower-level decision. This option implies that the board has heard and considered the grievance but takes no other formal action on the issue.
- 3) The board may postpone its decision until the next regularly scheduled meeting.

- 3) Complainants who desire some action be taken should be directed or referred to the appropriate policy outlining grievance procedures and informed that the steps listed in policy are necessary to protect everyone's rights while following an orderly process.
- 4) Ask if the complainant has followed the "Chain of Command" outlined in district policy.
- 5) If the complainant does not know the district's "Chain of Command," provide the following information.

- 2) All school board members have a First Amendment right to voice their opinions and support the candidate of their choice. Each trustee should weigh the potential damage to working relationships that might occur as a result of sharing personal opinions in a public forum and should act in the best interest of the district.
